

EVICTON PACKET:
FORCIBLE ENTRY AND DETAINER ACTIONS (FE&Ds)
(Effective January 2014)

Welcome to the Miamisburg Municipal Court.

You are filing an action in forcible entry and detainer (an eviction), wherein you are asking the Court to evict a tenant from a residential or business premises.

To begin the process, you must file a complaint. The complaint form is provided in this packet for you. It is necessary that you fill in the appropriate information on the complaint. The information that goes on that complaint will vary according to your specific case.

Our clerks are here to help you process the paperwork in your case as expeditiously as possible. It is important that you understand that our clerks are not attorneys, and they are not permitted to give you any legal advice regarding your case. They are happy to answer your questions about the court process, but they cannot give legal advice.

Once the court has granted you restitution of the premises, you may file a writ of restitution. These forms are also included in this packet, and available at www.miamisburgcourts.com or at the Clerk's Office. The writ of restitution is a document in which you ask the Court to have the defendants and their belongings physically removed from the premises.

After the defendants have moved from the premises, you may request a hearing on your second cause of action in order to obtain a judgment against the defendants for the amount of past due rent owed, and for the cost to repair damages to the property that are above normal wear and tear.

You are strongly urged to contact an attorney should you have any legal questions concerning your forcible entry and detainer matter.

It is important to us that your contact with the Miamisburg Municipal Court is as pleasant as possible, and that your case is handled in a timely manner.

Sincerely,

MIAMISBURG MUNICIPAL COURT

Judge Alyse Rettich
