CASE NO: _____

JUDGE ROBERT W. RETTICH, III

ACKNOWLEDGMENT AND WAIVER OF RIGHTS

You are hereby advised by the Court of the charge(s) against you, the penalty provided by law, and of your constitutional and statutory rights. You have the right:

1. To a trial and you have a right to a jury trial if your sentence carries potential jail time;
2. To face those who accuse you of this crime;
3. To subpoena (have the court order in) witnesses on your behalf;
4. To remain silent and you are not required to testify or make any statement against yourself;
5. The right to be represented by counsel of your choice. A right to a reasonable continuance to retain counsel if you cannot afford an attorney and if your sentence carries potential jail time you have the right to a court appointed counsel.

Also, understand:

1. You have the right to make the state or municipality prove your guilt beyond a reasonable doubt;
2. You have the right to be advised of the maximum or mandatory penalty of the charges against you.

I understand that if I am not a citizen of the United States, a plea of guilty, or a finding of guilty following a no contest plea may have the consequences of deportation, exclusion from admission to the United States, or denial of naturalization pursuant to the laws of the United States.

My signature acknowledges that I have been advised and waive these rights.
